

Hey You! What Song Are You Listening To?

People in New York and London went around their cities, asking people with headphones what song they were listening to (you'll find the playlists below).

Watch the following two clips on YouTube. Before you do it, read the tasks that I want you to do while and after watching them:

- 1 Is there a song in these lists that you also know and like? Name one (or two), and say why you like it (them).
- 2 Remember one person in each video clip that you find likable. Make a note of what you like about him or her (at least two details). What would you talk about if you met them?
- 3 If you compare the New York and the London video, which one do you like better? Why? (4 - 5 sentences)
- 4 Would you want to do a similar video about the place you come from? Would you like to do it rather in Regensburg, Nuremberg or Munich? (4 - 5 sentences)
- 5 Bonus task: Which of the songs would you nominate for "most intelligent" and "most stupid"?
