Come, Thou bright and morning star

1. Come, Thou bright and morning star, light of light, with-out be-gin-ning! Shine u-pon us from a-far.
2. Let Thy grace, like mor-ning dew fall-ing soft on bar-ren pla-ces, com-fort, qui-ken, and re-new.
3. May Thy fer-vent love de-stroy our cold works, in us a-wa-king ar-dent zeal and ho-ly joy.
4. Ah! Thou day-spring from on high, grant that at Thy next ap-pear-ing we who in the graves do lie.
5. Light us to those heaven-ly spheres, sun of grace, in glo-ry shrou-ded. Lead us through this vale of tears.

(1. Let us tru-ly rise here yet life has set. and re-joice in our new life, far from strif-e.
2. Let us tru-ly rise here yet life has set. and re-joice in our new life, far from strif-e.
3. Let us tru-ly rise here yet life has set. and re-joice in our new life, far from strif-e.
4. Let us tru-ly rise here yet life has set. and re-joice in our new life, far from strif-e.
5. Let us tru-ly rise here yet life has set. and re-joice in our new life, far from strif-e.)

(1. Bless Thy flock from Thy rich store e-ver more.
2. Bless Thy flock from Thy rich store e-ver more.
3. Bless Thy flock from Thy rich store e-ver more.
4. Bless Thy flock from Thy rich store e-ver more.
5. Bless Thy flock from Thy rich store e-ver more.)

Melodie:

1. C Am7 F F/G F/A C F/C D/A C/G F C C Am7 F F/G F/A C Am7 G F C/E Dm7 F/G C
2. C F Dm G C F/G C
3. C F Dm G C F/G C
4. C F Dm G C F/G C
5. C F Dm G C F/G C

www.gesangbuchlieder.de

Text: Richard Massie 1857
nach Christian Kröner von Rosenroth 1684
"Morgenglanz der Ewigkeit"
Melodie: Johann Rudolf Ahle 1662
"Morgenglanz der Ewigkeit"